The Adjudicator found that the Public Body failed to make every reasonable effort to respond within the timelines provided in the Act.

Statutes Cited: AB: Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. F-25, ss. 11, 72.

I. BACKGROUND

[para 1] An Applicant made an access request under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act) dated August 28, 2018 to the Edmonton Police Service (Public Body). The request is date stamped as received on August 30, 2018. The Public Body acknowledged receipt of the request by letter dated August 30, 2018.

[para 2] On October 17, 2018, this Office received a request for review from the Applicant, as he had not yet received a response by the Public Body as required by the Act.

[para 3] The Public Body did not provide a submission to this inquiry. However, the Public Body did provide a copy of a letter sent to the Applicant, dated November 29, 2018, in which the Public Body responded to the Applicant's request. The Public Body enclosed responsive records with the letter to the Applicant.

II. RECORDS AT ISSUE

[para 4] As the issue in this inquiry relates to the timeliness of the Public Body's response, there are no records at issue.

III. ISSUE

[para 5] The Notice of Inquiry, dated November 8, 2018, states the issue for this inquiry as follows:

Did the Public Body comply with section 11 of the Act (time limit for responding)?

IV. DISCUSSION OF ISSUE

[para 6] Section 11 of the Act states:

11(1) The head of a public body must make every reasonable effort to respond to a request not later than 30 days after receiving it unless

(a) that time limit is extended under section 14, or

(b) the request has been transferred under section 15 to another public body.

(2) The failure of the head to respond to a request within the 30-day period or any extended period is to be treated as a decision to refuse access to the record.

[para 7] Although the Public Body has now responded to the Applicant as required by the Act, section 11 of the Act requires a public body to make every reasonable effort to respond to an access request in 30 days. The Applicant's access request was received by the Public Body on August 30, 2018 and the Public Body did not respond as required by the Act until November 29, 2018. There is no indication that the Public Body extended its time to respond under section 14 of the Act.

[para 8] Therefore, I find that the Public Body failed to make every reasonable effort to respond within the timelines set out in section 11 of the Act.

V. ORDER

[para 9] I make this Order under section 72 of the Act.

[para 10] I find that the Public Body did not respond to the Applicant within the time limit set out in section 11 of the Act. As the Public Body has now responded to the Applicant's access request, it is not necessary for me to order the Public Body to respond to the Applicant under the Act.
